Tornado Death Toll Soars Past 70

TREAT FOR SALEM MARINE. Wounded Vietnam veterans were treated to a reception in the Rayburn House Office Building in Washington Wednesday by Reps. Robert Mathias (R-Calif.) and Otis Pike (D-N. ### Last Week's GI Death Toll Hit New High

562 Killed In War, 19 Over Previous Record Feb. 11-17

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops launched strong attacks today north of Saigon and in the Central Highlands as the U.S. Command announced that more American soldiers were killed in combat last week than in any week of the Vietnam war.

U.S. Command said 562 Americans were killed, 19 more than the previous record in the week of Feb. 11-17. The U.S. Command reported 5,552 enemy killed last week, no record, while South Vietnamese headquarters said 675 government troops were killed, their third highest weekly toll of the war.

A U.S. spokesman said much of the American death toll resulted from heavy action in the northernmost provinces, where U.S. Marines fought several battles last week around Dong Ha, 11 miles south of the demilitarized zone. The week also saw hard fighting in and around Saigon as American and South Vietnamese forces crushed the second enemy offensive within four months against the capital.

Allied forces reported nearly 400 more Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed Wednesday in clashes from the canal-laced Mekong Delta to the demilitarized zone. And today there were reports of more fighting in the Central Highlands on three sides of Kontum, a key provincial capital, and near Khe Sanh, in the northwest corner of the country.

Buffer Zone Seen Snag In Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — A serious disagreement appears to be developing in the Paris peace talks over re-establishing an effective buffer zone between North and South Vietnam as an important step toward scaling down the war.

U.S. authorities analyzing the problem are reported to believe that the discussions so far show it to be a real issue.

North Vietnamese representative Xuan Thuy, demanded Wednesday that the United States halt all military actions against North Vietnam, including "the bombardment of artillery based in the southern part of the DMZ" as well as air strikes there and elsewhere.

He also demanded that the United States withdraw from the zone, but U.S. officials said neither the United States nor its allies had established bases or sent troops into the zone for other than brief sweep operations.

The North Vietnamese have been reported to have entire divisions in that area, operating freely between their own and South Vietnamese territory.

Smoleski Victor In Sheriff Race

Four Hancock County precincts counted late Tuesday meant the difference between winning and losing for Democratic sheriff candidates Lou Smoleski of Weirton and Jack Evans of New Cumberland, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The ballots cast in the last precinct tallies showed Smoleski the victor, followed closely by Evans and Frank A. Rocchio of Weirton.

Other candidates were Edward J. Malinowski, Mickey M. Mallas and Robert D. Wright of Weirton.

The completed returns follow:

Smoleski	2,920
Evans	2,885
Mallas	1,265
Malinowski	827
Rocchio	2,836
Wright	485

FINAL tallies also confirmed Joseph Manypenny of New Cumberland as the Democrat commissioner nominee.

County Republicans nominated Dr. Dale Williams of near New Cumberland for commissioner and Ralph Patrick of Weirton for sheriff in the final results.

Others nominated by the Democrats in the completed ballot — counting were Edward Zagula for prosecuting attorney, Dan Grossi for clerk of Circuit Court, George Konchar for clerk of County Court, Anthony Pirraglia for assessor and George Griffith for House of Delegates.

Manypenny, former sheriff and New Cumberland police chief, won a six-way contest against Earl Stover of New Manchester and W. (Wick) Atwell, John Kuzio, George Vacheresse and Welly Vulgamore of New Cumberland.

Tallies showed:
Manypenny	4,110
Kuzio	2,035
Atwell	1,240
Stover	1,402
Vacheresse	771
Vulgamore	699

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — In case the bees haven't heard — no longer can they buzz in Charles Caballero's backyard. ### Sprouse Seen Victorious In Governor Bid

Leads Robertson By 3,956 With 21 Precincts To Count

CHARLESTON (AP) — Democratic State Chairman James H. Sprouse appears to have won his party's gubernatorial nomination and will probably be Republican Arch A. Moore's opponent in the November final election.

With only 21 of 2,508 precincts uncounted, Sprouse led Atty. Gen. C. Donald Robertson by 3,956 votes Wednesday—121,648 over Robertson's 117,692.

Returns from 2,272 precincts gave Moore a solid lead over his GOP opponent, former Gov. Cecil Underwood—94,837 compared to 69,442.

Underwood formally acknowledged defeat in a congratulatory telegram to Moore, and the latter heralded his primary victory as "a new beginning" for West Virginia.

Robertson refused to concede, however, and Sprouse said he would "wait and be sure" before conceding.

A massive outbreak of tornadoes slammed at the nation's midsection late Wednesday, killing more than 70 persons, injuring several hundred and leaving a trail of damage estimated in the millions of dollars.

The toll of deaths in the twisters and severe thunderstorms climbed to 72 today, with 48 dead in Arkansas alone. Iowa counted 14 dead, Illinois 8, Mrs.ouri and Indiana 1 each.

As expected, the reported toll climbed sharply as daylight broke over the stricken region. Darkness and flash flooding had hampered search operations.

Hardest hit was the northeastern Arkansas university city of Jonesboro which counted 33 dead and more than 350 injured.

A twister slammed into the southeastern section of the city at dusk scattering homes like dominoes.

Arkansas State Police reported 10 dead at the little town of Oil Trough, a community of 235 residents which eyewitnesses said was virtually destroyed. Three died at Mountain Home and two were killed at Tuckerman, all within 100 miles of Jonesboro.

The rash of tornadoes — the Weather Bureau reported more than 30 in a nine-state area from Kansas to Ohio — erupted as a strong cold front clashed with warm, humid temperatures in the mid 80s.

Shortly before striking in Arkansas, the wave of twisters raked northeastern Iowa. A funnel cloud roared through downtown Charles City around 4 p. m. Eleven were dead when the storm was over and, police reported, most buildings in an eight-block area were demolished.

Only an hour later a twister whipped into Oelwein, 50 miles from Charles City, striking first at the south edge of the community and then blasting a path through the business district. The highway patrol said two persons were killed in the city, two were missing and a child was killed just north of Oelwein. National Guard troops were called out both in Arkansas and Iowa. Additional doctors, nurses and blood were flown to stricken parts of Iowa from as far away as Minneapolis.

The storms in Arkansas poured more heavy rain on sections of that state still flooded from heavy downpours earlier in the week.

Tornadoes or severe thunderstorms swept almost the entire length of Illinois, starting before noon Wednesday and continuing into the night.

Hardest hit in Illinois was Freeburg, near East St. Louis, where four died and scores were reported injured.

Two died at Wapella, in central Illinois. Communication was lacking with Wapella, and authorities feared the toll there would go higher. An elderly woman died of a heart attack after a tornado swooped across Natrona, also in central Illinois. A University of Illinois student was electrocuted by a shorted traffic signal in a flooded Champaign street intersection.

'All In Good Shape' — 4 Others Found Dead

6 More Miners Trapped 9 Days In West Virginia Pit Are Rescued

HOMINY FALLS, W. Va. (AP) — Six coal miners, trapped nearly ten days two miles deep in a flooded mine shaft, were rescued early today and were termed "all in good shape."

They had been given up for dead since there had been no word from them since they were trapped.

The other four trapped with them since May 6 were found dead and their bodies were due to be brought out later today. Work had continued around the clock to reach the ten men though they were feared dead.

Another 15 miners, isolated a mile away and one mile from the mine's entrance, were rescued last Saturday.

The six were given a quick checkup at the mine entrance by Dr. Lee B. Todd and then rushed to Sacred Heart hospital in Richwood, 15 miles away.

The six reached the mine entrance about 4 a. m. (EDT) and paused for a prayer at the opening of the long horizontal shaft that bores into the foot of a mountain.

At the three-story hospital, the men were shielded from newsmen while doctors checked them and they talked with their families.

"Thank God he's alive," said Mrs. Okie Galford of Baltimore, sister of John Moore, Jr. "We gave up hope after all this time, and we still can't believe it. He's my only brother and he better not go down that damned mine again."

Newsmen got a glimpse of the men who appeared cheerful as they sipped hot chocolate in their hospital beds. None appeared in poor condition.

Beside's Moore, the other five rescued were Joe E. Fitzwater, 33, of Rupert, whose brother barely escaped being trapped; Jennings H. Lilly, 30, of Mt. Nebo; Edward F. Scarbro, 38, of Richwood; Gene H. Martin, 34, of Clintontville; and Larry Lynch, 28, of Richwood. All of their homes are near the mine.

"You can tell the whole world that the Fitzwater family is the happiest darned family in the world today," said Mrs. Ernest Fitzwater when she grabbed a newsmen in the hospital corridor.

The men had to crawl 800 yards through the 36-inch high tunnel to reach a battery-operated mine cart. This took them to a conveyor belt, normally used for hauling coal, and they rode it a half-mile to the mine's entrance.

H. E. Sundstrom of the Gaulty Coal and Coke Co., which operates the mine, said the car hit a deep hole and jumped the track but he said the three men in it "were in good enough shape to lift it and put it back on the track."

Sundstrom explained that the water which flooded the passage and kept the men pinned in nearly ten days of darkness was drinkable but he pointed out it did have a slight acid content.

Mine officials were mystified on the source of air to be men. "They must have had air coming in from somewhere," he said.

One of the six told officials that the water which came in and trapped them "flooded the mine like a tidal wave and washed us up to higher ground."

During Trial At Lisbon

Garvin Denies That Car Struck Pedestrian Here

Glenn C. Garvin, 43, Smiths Ferry area farmer, took the witness stand Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon to deny his car hit a pedestrian Feb. 3 on the Diamond here.

Testimony resumed this morning as the traffic manslaughter trial entered its fourth day. Assistant Prosecuting Atty. John B. McDonald rested the state's case yesterday afternoon.

Garvin is charged with the death of Lawrence Mathes, 62, formerly of Dresden Ave., who died Feb. 8 in City Hospital with a fractured skull.

Salem Private Loses Life In Viet Fighting

A 24-year-old Salem soldier has been killed in action in Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Hughes of 424 S. Madison Ave., Salem, were informed Wednesday of the death of their son, Army Pfc. William J. Hughes, on Monday.

The infantryman died during action in the Mekong Delta. Hughes was reported missing in action May 2 following a fire fight. He was serving in an amphibious vehicle patrolling a river when it was attacked.

Authorities said they believe he was either knocked off the vehicle by a bullet or fell off and was drowned. The body was located and is being sent home. Pfc. Hughes was a 1962 graduate of Salem High School. He had worked at the Salem Firestone Store and attended a barber school in Akron. He later worked in shops at Youngstown and Canfield.

Pfc. Hughes entered the service in October 1967 and received

2 Instructors Resign Posts

LISBON — The village board of education Tuesday night accepted the resignations of two high school teachers, hired two instructors for 1968-69 and engaged the Tri-State Waterproofing Co. of Pittsburgh for repairs at the high school.

Joseph Carlucci, physical education teacher and assistant football coach, resigned to teach elsewhere, and Mrs. Betty Kennedy resigned the home economics post for personal reasons, Supt. Joe W. Driscoll reported.

Miss Linda Converse of Leetonia RD, a graduate of Ohio State University, was employed to teach home economics.

Mrs. Kathryn Exten of Columbiana, teaching this year in the Fairfield - Waterford District, was hired to teach first grade at McKinley School.

Driscoll told the board that the Tri - State Waterproofing bids were $1,990 for repointing bricks, $600 to replace lintels and $450 for caulking joints — a total of $3,040.

The Leetonia Typewriter Service received the servicing contract for the next school year at $7 per year for each of approximately 26 machines. Fifthian Typewriter Service of Salem bid $8. Leetonia had the contract this year.

The board received a letter from Edwin (Bud) Bucher, history teacher and football coach, thanking it for easing his teaching load and hiring him as coach for next season. He had submitted his resignation as coach earlier. He told the board a couple of months ago that he had decided to resign as coach.

Driscoll reported that 1,632 copies of the district's first newsletter were mailed Friday and Monday.

He also reported approximately 100 seniors will be graduated May 31.

Pioneer Insurance Co., which has the student insurance program this year, was authorized to offer it again for 1968-69.

The board voted to join a research program being sponsored by Battelle Institute and the Ohio School Boards association at a fee of $1,500 per year for three years. Dr. Wade A. Bacon, president of the Lisbon board, is a director of the state association.

Young Favorite Son Tag Slated To Be Dropped

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young's tag as Ohio's favorite son presidential candidate will be dropped before the first ballot at the Democratic national convention, State Chairman Morton Neipp said Wednesday.

Neipp said delegates nominally pledged to Young will probably decide which recognized candidate to back at a caucus the week before the convention, which begins Aug. 26 in Chicago. Young has agreed on the plan, the chairman said.

Young was originally chosen as a favorite son candidate as a stand-in for President Johnson on the state's May 7 primary ballots. When Johnson announced he would not seek reelection, Young's role became less clear.

Three members of Ohio's 128-member delegation are committed to Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota. The others stated a preference on primary ballots for Young as favorite son candidate.

Hedrick Cautions Parole Violators Of Stiff Penalties

A stern warning against juvenile parole violations was issued today by Ed Hedrick of East Liverpool, probation officer for Juvenile Court at Lisbon.

Hedrick said several juveniles have been failing to report to City Hall as directed.

In the future, violators will be picked up and taken to the detention room at the County Jail in Lisbon, Hedrick said.

Violators then will face further hearings and possibly stiffer sentences, he added.

Hedrick pointed out he had to take a 16-year-old youth into custody yesterday for violating the terms of his parole in five different ways.

The youth was taken to Lisbon and is being held for an appearance in court.

Youths who are directed to appear on certain dates at City Hall should make efforts to be present "to avoid serious consequences," Hedrick warned.

Writer Upton Sinclair unintentionally brought about the passage of food inspection laws in his novel, "The Jungle," about poor working conditions in slaughterhouses. "I aimed at the public's heart and by accident I hit it in the stomach," said Sinclair, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

fore claiming the Democratic nomination.

State legislator John D. "Jay" Rockefeller IV provided the most spectacular primary development when he won the Democratic nomination for secretary of state by a huge margin—192,549 votes compared to 41,039 for his closest rival, former State Treasurer Orel J. Skeen.

Statehouse observers saw this as just another step toward the expected 1972 gubernatorial candidacy of the 30-year-old nephew of the Republican governors of New York and Arkansas.

Rockefeller's November opponent will be John S. Calles of Huntington, a social studies instructor at Marshall University who was unopposed in the Republican primary.

State Sen. Paul Kaufman of Charleston ran third in the Democratic race for the gubernatorial nomination with 64,253 votes. Four other gubernatorial candidates — two Democrats and two Republicans — were never in serious contention.

Winners of delegate seats at the Democratic and Republican state in the primary — will not be known until later this week because of the long ballot. Many counties have not yet tabulated the results.

In the congressional races, incumbent Congressman Harley O. Staggers of Keyser and John M. Slack Jr. of Charleston scored lopsided victories.

Staggers, with a 20-year service record in the House, tallied

27,244 votes to 6,040 for Larry L. Chambers of Martinsburg in the 2nd District. The result was based on 379 of 595 precincts counted.

Staggers' Republican opponent probably will be George Strader of Buckhannon. Strader had 14,825 votes to 13,978 for William D. Brown of Martinsburg with only 23 precincts uncouncted.

Slack, a five-term Democrat, won renomination in the 3rd District with 37,905 votes while his opponent, the Rev. Leonard Underwood of St. Albans, had 2,918. His opponent probably will be former Republican State Sen. Neal Kinsolving, who beat George T. Martin of Charleston by a comfortable 4,000 votes.

Robert H. Mollohan, a former congressman from Fairmont, posted an easy triumph in the 1st Congressional District Democratic race over H. Laban White. Unofficial returns from 472 of 558 precincts gave Mollohan 18,894 votes to 11,460 for White.

Mollohan's Republican opponent is expected to be Thomas Sweeney of Wheeling, who led a three-man GOP field of candidates seeking the seat vacated by Republican Moors.

Rep. Ken Hechler, Democratic incumbent in the 4th District, and Rep. James Kee, his counterpart in the 5th District, were unopposed in the primary. Likewise Republicans Ralph L. Shannon of Huntington in the 4th and J. Donald Clark of Bluefield in the 5th had no opposition Tuesday.

These were the winners of other contested nominations for statewide office: State Supreme Court judge

Fred H. Caplan won Democratic renomination for a 12-year term by defeating Circuit Judge Kenneth K. Hall of Madison, 118,231 to 87,683.

Dennis R. Knapp of Nitro, judge of Kanawha County Common Pleas Court, won the GOP nomination to oppose Caplan in November. Knapp's margin over Merideth P. Wiswell of Huntington was better than 2 to 1.

Former Institutions Commissioner Chauncey Browning Jr. won a three-man race for the Democratic nomination for attorney general.

Tornado Death Toll Soars Past 70

TREAT FOR SALEM MARINE. Wounded Vietnam veterans were treated to a reception in the Rayburn House Office Building in Washington Wednesday by Reps. Robert Mathias (R-Calif.) and Otis Pike (D-N. Y.) Here, Lance Cpl. Harold Briggs of Salem, Ohio, gets a glass of champagne from hostesses Terry Schmidt and Sharon Horton (right). ### Last Week's GI Death Toll Hit New High

562 Killed In War, 19 Over Previous Record Feb. 11-17

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops launched strong attacks today north of Saigon and in the Central Highlands as the U.S. Command announced that more American soldiers were killed in combat last week than in any week of the Vietnam war.

U.S. Command said 562 Americans were killed, 19 more than the previous record in the week of Feb. 11-17. The U.S. Command reported 5,552 enemy killed last week, no record, while South Vietnamese headquarters said 675 government troops were killed, their third highest weekly toll of the war.

A U.S. spokesman said much of the American death toll resulted from heavy action in the northernmost provinces, where U.S. Marines fought several battles last week around Dong Ha, 11 miles south of the demilitarized zone. The week also saw hard fighting in and around Saigon as American and South Vietnamese forces crushed the second enemy offensive within four months against the capital.

Allied forces reported nearly 400 more Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed Wednesday in clashes from the canal-laced Mekong Delta to the demilitarized zone. And today there were reports of more fighting in the Central Highlands on three sides of Kontum, a key provincial capital, and near Khe Sanh, in the northwest corner of the country.

Buffer Zone Seen Snag In Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — A serious disagreement appears to be developing in the Paris peace talks over re-establishing an effective buffer zone between North and South Vietnam as an important step toward scaling down the war.

U.S. authorities analyzing the problem are reported to believe that the discussions so far show it to be a real issue.

North Vietnamese representative Xuan Thuy, demanded Wednesday that the United States halt all military actions against North Vietnam, including "the bombardment of artillery based in the southern part of the DMZ" as well as air strikes there and elsewhere.

He also demanded that the United States withdraw from the zone, but U.S. officials said neither the United States nor its allies had established bases or sent troops into the zone for other than brief sweep operations. The North Vietnamese have been reported to have entire divisions in that area, operating freely between their own and South Vietnamese territory.

Smoleski Victor In Sheriff Race

Four Hancock County precincts counted late Tuesday meant the difference between winning and losing for Democratic sheriff candidates Lou Smoleski of Weirton and Jack Evans of New Cumberland, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The ballots cast in the last precinct tallies showed Smoleski the victor, followed closely by Evans and Frank A. Rocchio of Weirton.

Other candidates were Edward J. Malinowski, Mickey M. Mallas and Robert D. Wright of Weirton.

The completed returns follow:

Smoleski	2,920
Evans	2,885
Mallas	1,265
Malinowski	827
Rocchio	2,836
Wright	485

FINAL tallies also confirmed Joseph Manypenny of New Cumberland as the Democrat commissioner nominee.

County Republicans nominated Dr. Dale Williams of near New Cumberland for commissioner and Ralph Patrick of Weirton for sheriff in the final results.

Others nominated by the Democrats in the completed ballot — counting were Edward Zagula for prosecuting attorney, Dan Grossi for clerk of Circuit Court, George Konchar for clerk of County Court, Anthony Pirraglia for assessor and George Griffith for House of Delegates.

Manypenny, former sheriff and New Cumberland police chief, won a six-way contest against Earl Stover of New Manchester and W. (Wick) Atwell, John Kuzio, George Vacheresse and Welty Vulgamore of New Cumberland.

Tallies showed:

Manypenny	4,110
Kuzio	2,035
Atwell	1,240
Stover	1,402
Vacheresse	771
Vulgamore	699

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — In case the bees haven't heard — no longer can they buzz in Charles Caballero's backyard. An order to this effect was signed Wednesday by Superior Court Commissioner James P. Natoli. Caballero, 77, complained the bees living in the yard of his neighbor crossed over property lines.

Sprouse Seen Victorious In Governor Bid

Leads Robertson By 3,956 With 21 Precincts To Count

CHARLESTON (AP) — Democratic State Chairman James H. Sprouse appears to have won his party's gubernatorial nomination and will probably be Republican Arch A. Moore's opponent in the November final election.

With only 21 of 2,508 precincts uncounted, Sprouse led Atty. Gen. C. Donald Robertson by 3,956 votes Wednesday—121,648 over Robertson's 117,692.

Returns from 2,272 precincts gave Moore a solid lead over his GOP opponent, former Gov. Cecil Underwood—94,837 compared to 69,442.

Underwood formally acknowledged defeat in a congratulatory telegram to Moore, and the latter heralded his primary victory as "a new beginning" for West Virginia.

Robertson refused to concede, however, and Sprouse said he would "wait and be sure" before conceding.

persons were killed in the city, two were missing and a child was killed just north of Oelwein.

National Guard troops were called out both in Arkansas and Iowa. Additional doctors, nurses and blood were flown to stricken parts of Iowa from as far away as Minneapolis.

The storms in Arkansas poured more heavy rain on sections of that state still flooded from heavy downpours earlier in the week.

Tornadoes or severe thunderstorms swept almost the entire length of Illinois, starting before noon Wednesday and continuing into the night.

Hardest hit in Illinois was Freeburg, near East St. Louis, where four died and scores were reported injured.

Two died in Wapella, in central Illinois. Communication was lacking with Wapella, and authorities feared the toll there would go higher. An elderly woman died of a heart attack after a tornado swooped across Natrona, also in central Illinois. A University of Illinois student was electrocuted by a shorted traffic signal in a flooded Champaign street intersection.

'All In Good Shape' — 4 Others Found Dead

6 More Miners Trapped 9 Days In West Virginia Pit Are Rescued

HOMINY FALLS, W.Va. (AP) — Six coal miners, trapped nearly ten days two miles deep in a flooded mine shaft, were rescued early today and were termed "all in good shape."

They had been given up for dead since there had been no word from them since they were trapped.

The other four trapped with them since May 6 were found dead and their bodies were due to be brought out later today. Work had continued around the clock to reach the ten men though they were feared dead.

Another 15 miners, isolated a mile away and one mile from the mine's entrance, were rescued last Saturday.

The six were given a quick checkup at the mine entrance by Dr. Lee B. Todd and then rushed to Sacred Heart hospital in Richwood, 15 miles away.

The six reached the mine entrance about 4 a. m. (EDT) and paused for a prayer at the opening of the long horizontal shaft that bores into the foot of a mountain.

At the three-story hospital, the men were shielded from news while doctors checked them and they talked with their families.

"Thank God he's alive," said Mrs. Okie Galford of Baltimore, sister of John Moore, Jr. "We gave up hope after all this time, and we still can't believe it. He's my only brother and he better not go down that damned mine again."

Newsman got a glimpse of the men who appeared cheerful as they sipped hot chocolate in their hospital beds. None appeared in poor condition.

Beside Moore, the other five rescued were Joe E. Fitzwater, 33, of Rupert, whose brother barely escaped being trapped; Jennings H. Lilly, 30, of Mt. Nebo; Edward F. Scarbro, 38, of Richwood; Gene H. Martin, 34, of Clintonville; and Larry Lynch, 28, of Richwood. All of their homes are near the mine.

"You can tell the whole world that the Fitzwater family is the happiest darned family in the world today," said Mrs. Ernest Fitzwater when she grabbed a newsman in the hospital corridor.

The men had to crawl 800 yards through the 36-inch high tunnel to reach a battery-operated mine cart. This took them to a conveyor belt, normally used for hauling coal, and they rode it a half-mile to the mine's entrance.

H. E. Sundstrom of the Gaulty Coal and Coke Co., which operates the mine, said the car hit a deep hole and jumped the track but he said the three men in it "were in good enough shape to lift it and put it back on the track."

Sundstrom explained that the water which flooded the passage and kept the men pinned in nearly ten days of darkness was drinkable but he pointed out it did have a slight acid content.

Mine officials were mystified on the source of air to the men. "They must have had air coming in from somewhere," he said.

One of the six told officials that the water which came in and trapped them "flooded the mine like a tidal wave and washed us up to higher ground."

During Trial At Lisbon

Garvin Denies That Car Struck Pedestrian Here

Glenn C. Garvin, 43, Smiths Ferry area farmer, took the witness stand Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon to deny his car hit a pedestrian Feb. 3 on the Diamond here.

Testimony resumed this morning as the traffic manslaughter trial entered its fourth day. Assistant Prosecuting Atty. John B. McDonald rested the state's case yesterday afternoon.

Garvin is charged with the death of Lawrence Mathes, 62, formerly of Dresden Ave., who died Feb. 8 in City Hospital with a fractured skull.

THE STATE contends that Garvin was driving south on St. Clair Ave. in a 1962 Cadillac sedan, failed to stop for a red light at the 6th St. junction and struck Mr. Mathes, who was walking from east to west on the north side of 6th St. and had nearly reached the sidewalk by Reark's Cigar Store.

Everett Coleman, 70, of 307 Carolina Ave., the state's only eyewitness, said he was standing on the sidewalk in front of Reark's waiting for the light to change so he could cross to the south side of 6th. He said he saw the Cadillac strike the man and knock him in a kind of back flip into the street in front of Reark's. Coleman estimated the car's speed at 36 miles an hour.

Coleman and other witnesses said the Cadillac continued south onto 6th, which is one-way east, and struck the left front side of an eastbound Plymouth driven by Harry Frontz, 48, of Buckeye Ave., Wellsville. The vehicles locked.

GARVIN testified he was not driving fast and, in fact, had 4 lbs. 99c. Troy Cleaners.—Ad.

Salem Private Loses Life In Viet Fighting

A 24-year-old Salem soldier has been killed in action in Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Hughes of 424 S. Madison Ave., Salem, were informed Wednesday of the death of their son, Army Pfc. William J. Hughes, on Monday.

The infantryman died during action in the Mekong Delta. Hughes was reported missing in action May 2 following a fire fight. He was serving in an amphibious vehicle patrolling a river when it was attacked.

Authorities said they believe he was either knocked off the vehicle by a bullet or fell off and was drowned. The body was located and is being sent home.

Pfc. Hughes was a 1962 graduate of Salem High School. He had worked at the Salem Firestone Store and attended a barber school in Akron. He later worked in shops at Youngstown and Canfield.

Pfc. Hughes entered the service in October 1967 and received

2 Instructors Resign Posts

LISBON — The village board of education Tuesday night accepted the resignations of two high school teachers, hired two instructors for 1968-69 and engaged the Tri-State Waterproofing Co. of Pittsburgh for repairs at the high school.

Joseph Carlucci, physical education teacher and assistant football coach, resigned to teach elsewhere, and Mrs. Betty Kennedy resigned the home economics post for personal reasons, Supt. Joe W. Driscoll reported.

Miss Linda Converse of Leetonia RD, a graduate of Ohio State University, was employed to teach home economics.

Mrs. Kathryn Exten of Columbiana, teaching this year in the Fairfield - Waterford District, was hired to teach first grade at McKinley School.

Driscoll told the board that the Tri - State Waterproofing bids were $1,990 for repointing bricks, $600 to replace lintels and $450 for caulking joints — a total of $3,040.

The Leetonia Typewriter Service received the servicing contract for the next school year at $7 per year for each of approximately 26 machines. Fifthian Typewriter Service of Salem bid $8. Leetonia had the contract this year.

The board received a letter from Edwin (Bud) Bucher, history teacher and football coach, thanking it for easing his teaching load and hiring him as coach for next season. He had submitted his resignation as coach earlier. He told the board a couple of months ago that he had decided to resign as coach.

Driscoll reported that 1,632 copies of the district's first newsletter were mailed Friday and Monday.

He also reported approximately 100 seniors will be graduated May 31.

Pioneer Insurance Co., which has the student insurance program this year, was authorized to offer it again for 1968-69.

The board voted to join a research program being sponsored by Battelle Institute and the Ohio School Boards association at a fee of $1,500 per year for three years. Dr. Wade A. Bacon, president of the Lisbon board, is a director of the state association.

Young Favorite Son Tag Slated To Be Dropped

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young's tag as Ohio's favorite son presidential candidate will be dropped before the first ballot at the Democratic national convention, State Chairman Morton Neipp said Wednesday.

Neipp said delegates nominally pledged to Young will probably decide which recognized candidate to back at a caucus the week before the convention, which begins Aug. 26 in Chicago. Young has agreed on the plan, the chairman said.

Young was originally chosen as a favorite son candidate as a stand-in for President Johnson on the state's May 7 primary ballots. When Johnson announced he would not seek reelection, Young's role became less clear.

Three members of Ohio's 128-member delegation are committed to Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota. The others stated a preference on primary ballots for Young as favorite son candidate.

Youth Bitten By Dog, 15 Others Are Treated

A city youth bitten Wednesday by a dog was treated at City Hospital, along with 15 others.

Hedrick Cautions Parole Violators Of Stiff Penalties

A stern warning against juvenile parole violations was issued today by Ed Hedrick of East Liverpool, probation officer for Juvenile Court at Lisbon.

Hedrick said several juveniles have been failing to report to City Hall as directed.

In the future, violators will be picked up and taken to the detention room at the County Jail in Lisbon, Hedrick said.

Violators then will face further hearings and possibly stiffer sentences, he added.

Hedrick pointed out he had to take a 16-year-old youth into custody yesterday for violating the terms of his parole in five different ways.

The youth was taken to Lisbon and is being held for an appearance in court.

Youths who are directed to appear on certain dates at City Hall should make efforts to be present "to avoid serious consequences," Hedrick warned.

Writer Upton Sinclair unintentionally brought about the passage of food inspection laws in his novel, "The Jungle," about poor working conditions in slaughterhouses. "I aimed at the public's heart and by accident I hit it in the stomach," said Sinclair, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

BEAVER — John F. Morack, dean of business administration for the Beaver County Community College, has resigned effective July 15.

Morack, who was appointed in 1966 while assistant to the superintendent at Hopewell - Raccoon - Independence School District, emphasized in his letter of resignation to the college board his move had nothing to do with the recent resignation of Dr. H. B. Monroe as president of the college.

Morack said he has accepted a post as assistant superintendent of business at North Hills School District in Allegheny.

fore claiming the Democratic nomination.

State legislator John D. "Jay" Rockefeller IV provided the most spectacular primary development when he won the Democratic nomination for secretary of state by a huge margin—192,549 votes compared to 41,039 for his closest rival, former State Treasurer Orel J. Skeen.

Statehouse observers saw this as just another step toward the expected 1972 gubernatorial candidacy of the 30-year-old nephew of the Republican governors of New York and Arkansas.

Rockefeller's November opponent will be John S. Calles of Huntington, a social studies instructor at Marshall University who was unopposed in the Republican primary.

State Sen. Paul Kaufman of Charleston ran third in the Democratic race for the gubernatorial nomination with 64,253 votes. Four other gubernatorial candidates — two Democrats and two Republicans — were never in serious contention.

Winners of delegate seats at the Democratic and Republican state in the primary — will not be known until later this week because of the long ballot. Many counties have not yet tabulated the results.

In the congressional races, incumbent Congressman Harley O. Staggers of Keyser and John M. Slack Jr. of Charleston scored lopsided victories.

Staggers, with a 20-year service record in the House, tallied

27,244 votes to 6,040 for Larry L. Chambers of Martinsburg in the 2nd District. The result was based on 379 of 595 precincts counted.

Staggers' Republican opponent probably will be George Strader of Buckhannon. Strader had 14,825 votes to 13,978 for William D. Brown of Martinsburg with only 23 precincts uncounted.

Slack, a five-term Democrat, won renomination in the 3rd District with 37,905 votes while his opponent, the Rev. Leonard Underwood of St. Albans, had 2,918. His opponent probably will be former Republican State Sen. Neal Kinsolving, who beat George T. Martin of Charleston by a comfortable 4,000 votes.

Robert H. Mollohan, a former congressman from Fairmont, posted an easy triumph in the 1st Congressional District Democratic race over H. Laban White. Unofficial returns from 472 of 558 precincts gave Mollohan 18,894 votes to 11,460 for White.

Mollohan's Republican opponent is expected to be Thomas Sweeney of Wheeling, who led a three-man GOP field of candidates seeking the seat vacated by Republican Moore.

Rep. Ken Hechler, Democratic incumbent in the 4th District, and Rep. James Kee, his counterpart in the 5th District, were unopposed in the primary. Likewise Republicans Ralph L. Shannon of Huntington in the 4th and J. Donald Clark of Bluefield in the 5th had no opposition Tuesday.

Fred H. Caplan won Democratic renomination for a 12-year term by defeating Circuit Judge Kenneth K. Hall of Madison, 118,231 to 87,683.

Dennis R. Knapp of Nitro, judge of Kanawha County Common Pleas Court, won the GOP nomination to oppose Caplan in November. Knapp's margin over Merideth P. Wiswell of Huntington was better than 2 to 1.

Former Institutions Commissioner Chauncey Browning Jr. won a three-man race for the Democratic nomination for attorney general.

The Urban Problem

Rep. Frank Bow, R-Canton, has issued a timely reminder to members of Congress and their constituents who toss around figures in the billions when talking about solving all the ills of cities.

Rep. Bow expressed amazement at the remarks of those who feel the government has not been spending money on urban problems and can dole out billions in the twinkling of an eye.

The congressman said: "Those who talk glibly about spending billions for the cities should stop to consider the amounts already spent, the amounts that now are committed and the accomplishments that have resulted from these massive outpourings of federal dollars."

"THEY TALK CASUALLY of 10 million new housing units, apparently oblivious to the fact that public housing has been able to create only 700,000 in 33 years," he stated.

Rep. Bow has reason to be concerned. He pointed out that the House has just completed consideration on a bill that would give $3 billion to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the next fiscal year as part of a $37-billion package of federal aid to urban areas in the 1969 federal budget.

The congressman also is dubious about the fact that 21 different federal agencies are involved in working on more than 100 urban problem programs.

The federal government has a way of entangling itself in bureaucratic tape, wasting money and trying to get out of the jam by spending more money.

The problem — as the taxpayer well knows — is that all that money going down the drain through waste and application of unworkable programs comes from higher and higher taxes. The unsound Democratic theory of spending your way out of a financial hole is beginning to catch up with the country.

The Johnson administration purportedly couldn't understand the reluctance of Congress to jump at the chance to raise taxes. A blind man could hardly miss the foolishness of federal financial policies.

THE IRRESPONSIBLE federal approach toward financial matters has often been the target of editorial criticism but in the case of urban problems the consequences are especially tragic.

Residents of the areas designed for help programs expect miracles to be purchased by the billions talked about by politicians and leaders demanding change.

But the fact is they are doomed to disillusionment because the miracles will not come.

They will find not only that they were misled by the billions hocus-pocus, but that valuable time has been lost in developing reasonable solutions to urban ills.

Midnight Sun?

April is traditionally for showers.

May is for flowers — and golf, tennis and baseball and first-of-the-season picnics and a host of other happy springtime happenings which the current waterlogged month has been reluctant to allow us.

Ed Copeland, the U.S. weather watcher at Millport, has dipped out 2.7 inches of the wet stuff so far in the past 15 days. The whole month normally gets about 3½ inches.

As Copeland's Law of Natural Balances promises, we'll get our share of sunshine soon. But if Old Sol doesn't turn a little less shy, we might have to become the land of the midnight sun to catch up and pacify the golfers, the gardeners and the gang at the beach...

A Beam Of Progress

Progress takes many forms.

Westinghouse Research Laboratories in Pittsburgh has applied the electron principle that puts a picture on a television screen to develop a "gun" capable of cutting concrete and stone.

The gun, undergoing tests at this time, concentrates a stream of electrons to a specific area much like a beam of light. Developers report it probably will replace mechanical rock cutters, drills and jackhammers because of its quietness and efficiency at a reasonable cost.

It is expected to be used for quarrying stone, carving tunnels in mountains and cutting through street surfaces — all with a minimum of noise.

The electron gun gives off only a bright light and a slight hissing sound.

That is a real improvement over the rat-a-tat-tat of a jackhammer gouging out chunks of a city street.

It is a type of progress that can be de-AR-ly appreciated.

Miniskirts And DeGaulle

Girls are wearing miniskirts in Bucharest today where just a year ago their appearance in the abbreviated dresses would have caused riots of puritanism.

This is but one example of the new permissiveness within Romania which is trying, in a limited way, to emulate Czechoslovakia. The Romanians are passionately interested in the sudden expansion of freedom in Czechoslovakia.

But Romania has a long common frontier with Russia and must act judiciously.

Still, in recent months, Nicolae Ceausescu, general secretary of the Communist party and president of Romania, has become ever more popular with his people by continuing his nationalist defiance of the Soviet Union and allowing the Romanians to feel freer than they did before.

Just three years ago there was nothing at all in Romania which could give rise to optimism for freedom. But Mr. Ceausescu's curtailing of the powers of the once all-powerful secret police (as has been done in Czechoslovakia) has, in large measure, created the current optimism.

Romanians very much want to believe there is real cause for optimism regarding greater individual freedoms but they are fearful that such hope may be based on illusion or wishful thinking.

At this very moment French President Charles de Gaulle is in Romania on a five-day state visit, undoubtedly adding fuel to the fires of independence which burn in the hearts of the Romanians. He was expected to find a receptive audience for his thesis that the lesser East European nations should act independently of Moscow.

In this belief, if not in many others, President de Gaulle will find most Americans strongly support him.

House Angry At Students

House members have shown their distaste for campus riots and disruptions by voting 306 to 54 to chop off National Defense Education Act loans to students and teachers who participate in disturbances contrary to college rules.

The measure would require certification by school authorities that the student or teacher willfully refused to obey regulations and disrupted the operation of the college before the loan could be stopped.

Two other amendments would bar federal aid to students convicted of trespass or destruction of college property, or convicted of inciting to riot.

Carl Perkins, D-Ky., chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, predicts the amendments will be removed before the Senate approves the $1.4 billion student aid bill.

He may be right. But on the other hand, members of the Senate also have been listening to their constituents, who are fed up with campus militancy.

The $1.4 billion extension of major student aid programs represents a sizable portion of tax money. Taxpayers are not happy over the prospect it will be used by students who will attempt to tear a campus apart and deny the right to study to those who seek it.

House members have no illusions about the cutoff of federal loan funds putting an end to college disturbances.

But they do feel strongly about being on record as not wishing to reward campus troublemakers. They also want to show their support for those many students who want to study and want no part of illegal activities.

That is something for the senators to think about.

The First Step

DAVID LAWRENCE

Blackmail Funds

Does Congress have the right to stipulate that federal loans and scholarships shall not be granted to any students who are involved in a "serious obstruction" of college activity?

The House of Representatives has passed such a measure and has sent it to the Senate. Protests against the bill are being voiced on the theory that this is a misuse of governmental power.

But, strangely enough, the United States government has been employing precisely this method for the last few years in requiring colleges and universities to obey the regulations concerning racial discrimination issued by the government or else lose the benefit of federal funds in everything from student loans to construction and equipment grants.

WHEN THE DEPARTMENT of Health, Education and Welfare began to threaten the withdrawal of federal funds from educational institutions because they were allegedly failing to comply with the "law of the land," the so-called "liberals" were silent.

Today they are denouncing the House bill which seeks to withhold federal funds in order to punish college students who defy constituted authority.

A brief editorial in the New York Times Monday, which criticizes the House bill, will be welcomed by educators who have hitherto gotten little support in their opposition to the employment of federal funds as a form of blackmail. The editorial says:

"The threat by the House to punish rebellious college students by cutting them off from federal loans and scholarships is a dangerous excursion into political primitivism. The disregard of campus democracy by a minority of disruptive and irresponsible students at Columbia and elsewhere in no way justifies such congressional vendettas in direct conflict with democratic freedoms."

"Campus stability must be safeguarded by sound reforms on the part of the academic community and by enforcement of its own democratic rules, not by governmental threats of fiscal sanctions."

"It is deeply disturbing that so many politicians appear to think of federal subsidy of students as an indulgent uncle's benefaction. In reality, the extension of educational opportunities is at least as vital to the future health of the nation as it is to the personal careers of individual students."

But, more important, to turn federal stipends into a device to regulate student views and behavior is to stoop to methods generally associated with totalitarian states. Such action can only give support to those extremists among today's students who charge that the campus is doing the mercenary bidding of a repressive establishment.

"Federal interference with higher education is an intolerable violation of academic freedom. To permit such intrusions would undermine the nation's security far more severely than the disruptive insurrection of irresponsible youths."

The foregoing commentary will be read with interest by the administrators of many colleges and schools which have been struggling in the last few months with problems growing out of racial imbalance.

For the federal government has cut off funds from four colleges since Jan. 1, 1967—all of them private institutions. Eighteen hospitals have been deprived of federal money or have been threatened with its loss.

FEDERAL FUNDS constitute a powerful lever in compelling conformity with the views of governing authorities on how education should be conducted.

The Times' editorial, therefore, will be regarded in many parts of the country as a recognition of the fact that the power to grant or withhold federal funds permits a kind of blackmail and cannot be tolerated, no matter how worthy the objective.

There are plenty of laws on the statute books which can be used to punish students who are disorderly, seize private property or disrupt the operations of colleges, just as there are laws prohibiting racial discrimination.

It should not be necessary to threaten to withhold federal funds as a means of securing compliance with the ordinances of a city or the laws of a state for the preservation of order.

Doggone Students!

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — It is generally agreed that the student unrest going on these days is worldwide. It doesn't matter if the students live in a permissive society or a totalitarian one—they're still raising Cain. And for that reason, those of us watching from the sidelines are divided as to whether the unrest is a good thing or a bad thing.

At the University Club the other day I was having a brandy and cigar with some very nice chaps when the question of student demonstrations came up. "I see where they still haven't solved the problem at Columbia," Liverwhistle said. "It's appalling, absolutely appalling," Cartwright sputtered.

"THE STUDENTS should all be booted out on their ears. You can't have a university if you're going to have children running around locking up the faculty."

Conrad said, "Did you read what's going on in Paris? The French students have tied up the city."

"Ah, yes," Cartwright, "one can't help admiring the French students' gumption. They've certainly put De Gaulle in his place. You have to respect their attitude," Liverwhistle said. "At least the students can see through De Gaulle, if the rest of the French people can't."

"I don't think things have cooled off at Stanford," Studsdale commented. "They're still holding the administration building."

"If you ask me," said Cartwright, "it's a Communist plot. These things don't just happen. There's nothing the Commies wouldn't do to shut down the schools in this country. The only answer is force. It will make those radicals sing another tune."

"Did you read where the students in Czechoslovakia not only demonstrated, but caused the downfall of the Soviet-backed regime?"

"GOD BLESS THEM," said Conrad. "If we're ever going to see the end of tyranny behind the Iron Curtain, it's going to be the students who accomplish it."

"I understand the same thing could happen in Poland," Liverwhistle said, "and perhaps even East Germany. They're a new breed, those students, and a credit to the human race."

"You know, of course," said Studsdale, "that the administration completely collapsed at Northwestern and gave in to every demand of the students there."

Cartwright said, "My blood boiled when I read the story. Those damn kids don't know up from down and they're telling us how to run the country. I say we have to act now and act firmly. We ought to cut off all funds to any student who demonstrates or strikes against a university administration."

"The students in Franco's Spain have been agitating for a year now. No one knows how many are in jail," Conrad said.

"The poor kids," Liverwhistle said. "They're only trying to make a better world, and they're thrown in jail for it. I think we should get up a petition and send it to the Spanish ambassador."

"I see they're having another sit-in at Berkeley," Liverwhistle commented.

"They're always having a sit-in at Berkeley," Studsdale said.

"I'LL TELL YOU what's wrong with the kids today. They've got too much money. They don't even appreciate what we've gone through to give them an education. All they talk about is freedom. What kind of freedom do they want?"

"It's the faculty," said Conrad. "They're the ones who egg the students on. Instead of jailing the students, they ought to lock up the faculty. Then we'd stop all this anarchy on campuses."

Cartwright, who was flipping through a paper said, "It says here that the students in Communist China are thinking about having another Red Guard revolution."

"Great," said Liverwhistle. "Old Mao won't be able to take another one of those."

Liverwhistle agreed. "I must say one thing for the students abroad. They sure have a lot of class."

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I want to comment on your editorial of May 11 "Tax Increase On The Way."

I do not feel the federal surtax is inevitable. Eighteen months ago the people of this nation put forth a partial mandate. They elected congressmen who promised to restore federal responsibility — especially in finances. Such men as Robert Taft, Jr. (Cincinnati) and Clarence E. Miller (Lancaster), are Ohioans who are representative of the November 1966 voting.

The yearning in 1966 was for increased responsibility in a time of increasing need for responsibility. The people's yearning, and that need, have not lessened over the months.

I agree, however, that there is an inevitable issue concerning local and federal taxes. People know that this is a crisis issue and is basic to public school financing. Our Wellsville and Beaver Local school districts have experienced such crisis.

The school - tax problem is prevalent across the country. The people know that local taxes are, proportionately, as important as federal taxes. But they just do not have the money for both — at present rates. Who comes first? The hometown and state (justifiably in need) or, many sly and silly politicians in Washington in need of ouster!

Your statement, "... American taxpayer will come through. He always has," is not fair. The people are not dupes. We are aware of the gross corruption and waste of the federal government.

There is corruption and waste in the Anti-poverty program. Corruption linked with the Charleston, W. Va. Job Corps center has been documented. I have personally seen waste in the Ironton, Ohio, and Huntington, W. Va., Job Corps centers. I have listened to eyewitness reports of Job Corps waste in Southern Indiana and Minnesota.

Inadequate material and corruption in Viet Nam, in the face of 20 billion dollar appropriations for this sick war, have not gone unnoticed. Wm. S. Gaud's flimsy qualifications of wholesale corruption before Sen. Fulbright's committee should not be left unnoticed either.

For these reasons, and MANY more, the American taxpayer will not "come through." I should think Americans would not stand for such irresponsibility... or will they? Writing congressmen does help. "My position on this proposal (surtax) is that I do not intend to support it until more evidence is presented to justify it than I have seen up to now." Rep. Wayne L. Hays, May 5, 1968.

"The voice of the people is the voice of God." Double in election year.

Trial

one in the crosswalk and there was no traffic visible on 6th St. when he started into the intersection.

Garvin said he did not know that 6th was one-way east nor that E. Market was one-way north. He said he became confused and stopped his car which had gone "inadvertently too far" toward the Market St. opening. Just as he put the car in reverse to back up so he could turn east on 6th, he said he was hit by the Frontz car which tried to get by the front of his car on the south.

He insisted that photographs taken of the two cars after they were separated bore out his statement that Frontz hit him.

Garvin said it is "absolutely not true" that his wheels spun until they raised a cloud of smoke while the two cars were locked. He also denied that anyone came to his car and asked him to get out, then turned off the ignition. State's witnesses testified these things happened.

GARVIN said he did not see the accident victim until he got out of his car. He did not go over to look at the man because there were too many people around. He stayed by his car and, when the vehicles were separated, drove the Cadillac to the police station.

Police testified that the green section of the traffic light facing St. Clair has an arrow pointing east. They brought photographs of it taken the day after the accident. Garvin said the photos are not an accurate representation of the light on Feb. 3. He said the green light was round and had no arrow. He said there were two letters "ay" hanging from a bracket at the base of the light and he presumed they were from a one-way sign that had been broken off.

The defendant said he resides in Ohioville Borough about 12 miles from East Liverpool and was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1942, but does not know the city well and does most of his business in East Palestine or Beaver Falls. He is single and lives with his mother on the farm where he was reared.

"Didn't you go into a state of shock when this accident happened?" asked McDonald. "I did not," Garvin answered. "You had full control of all your faculties?" the prosecutor continued. "Absolutely, at all times."

DEFENSE Counsel Robert Hartford of East Palestine was unable to get into the record the testimony of an out-of-state polygraph technician.

Judge Joel H. Sharp told the jury the defendant had not obtained the prosecutor's permission for another test after an "inconclusive" test given the defendant by James R. Gause, polygraph examiner in the prosecutor's office. "You will not consider any other polygraph test," the judge told the panel.

Hartford called Kenneth Eardley, a mortician at the Dawson Funeral Home, to ask if he noticed any bruises on Mr. Matthes' body during the embalming. Eardley said the only one he recalled was behind the right ear.

Eardley said a nurse at the hospital gave him a sack containing the victim's personal effects, and a bottle of whiskey which had come to the hospital with him. The bottle was full and the seal unbroken, Eardley testified.

Summer Program Discussed At Park Commission Session

The summer program was outlined during a meeting of the East Liverpool Park Commission Tuesday night.

John Parsons, chairman, pointing out that yesterday was the deadline for previous permit holders to reserve dock space along the Ohio River, said that from now on space will be rented on a first-come-first-serve basis.

The fee is $5 for the season for out-of-town residents and $2 for city residents. Parsons said there still are "hundreds of spaces" available.

Work is about complete on the new football field at Thompson Park. Parsons, Allen Montgomery, a new member, and Louis Yanni are in charge of the project. A contractor has been hired to complete the field.

Don Eckert, city planning coordinator, reported on a meeting at Columbus with representatives of the Division of Watercraft of the Department of Natural Resources.

A discussion was held on the possibility of construction of a marina on the river. The proposal calls for a $112,000 marina, with the city's cost $50,000.

But, the deadline for applying for funds is June and the city will not have time to complete all the applications. Eckert said more money will be made available at a later date and the city can apply at that time if still interested.

James Allison and Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne, who is in charge of the river dock program, were guests.

The commission said the baseball program is in full swing and the city-owned playlots have been readied for summer activities.

The next meeting will be June 10.

Army To Induct 15,000 In July

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department has issued a draft call for 15,000 army inductees in July, the lowest monthly call since April 1967.

It also forecast lower than normal draft calls for the July-December period.

At the same time, the Pentagon reduced its June draft call by 9,500 men — from 29,500 to 20,000. It did so because the Army had overestimated the number of men who would be discharged in June.

Draft calls reached their 1968 peak in April, when 48,000 men were ordered to report for induction under Selective Service.

The July call — lowest since the 11,400 of April a year ago — dipped way down because it reflects the tail end of an Army replacement cycle dating back to the buildup for the Vietnam war over two years ago.

10 Dead Or Missing As Building Collapses

LONDON (AP) — The side of a brand-new 23-floor apartment building in London's East End collapsed after an explosion at dawn today. Ten persons perished or are missing.

Police said three bodies had been recovered from the wreckage.

Seven occupants of the building were taken to a hospital and police said there was little hope of finding any more survivors in the rubble.

Portugal, smaller than Indiana, is a vacation world in miniature. Within hours, the sports-minded may ski in the piney northcentral (Serra da Estrela) and swim from the year-round sunny beaches of the Algarve.

Quake Kills 14, Injures 50 In Japan

TOKYO (AP) — A severe earthquake that jolted 600 miles of Japan's eastern seaboard today killed at least 14 persons and caused tidal waves and widespread damage.

Police said in addition to the 14 known dead, three persons were missing and at least 50 injured. Seven Americans at Misawa Air Force Base, in northern Honshu, suffered minor injuries, but no planes were damaged.

It wasn't as bad as it might have been because the quake's epicenter was 93 miles out to sea, off Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost island.

The Central Meteorological Agency said magnitude of the quake at its epicenter was 7.8, above the seven-point scale used in Japan. It was the strongest quake since the Sept. 1, 1923, tremor that left much of Tokyo and Yokohama in ruins.

The tidal waves averaged four to five feet, but damage was reduced because they came at low tide.

However, numerous homes and buildings were destroyed, either by the quake or fires that followed it. Hundreds of homes were flooded to floor level or above. Roads were impassable in places, bridges cut, dikes ruptured and railway tracks severed.

Most of the damage occurred in southern Hokkaido and northern central Honshu.

Aomori, a city of 210,000 in northern Honshu, apparently was hardest hit.

3 Men Rescued On Boat 10 Miles Out On Lake Erie

CLEVELAND (AP) — "I ain't even going to set foot on a boat again," Robert Melton said Wednesday after he and two friends were rescued 10 miles out in Lake Erie.

The trio had two packs of chocolate chip cookies to eat in 26 hours.

Melton, 28, had invited James Crosby, 28, and his brother, John, 26, to take a ride in his new 16-foot outboard boat Tuesday.

The boat hit a rock off Gordon Park and an outboard motor "went straight up in the air and the smoke came out," said James Crosby.

The motor quit. The three men tried to get it running again, but the boat started to drift during their efforts.

James Crosby's wife called the Coast Guard when her husband didn't return and two helicopters started searching. The boat was spotted Wednesday afternoon and a cutter towed the boat to shore.

New Round Launched On Steel Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A second round of preliminary steel negotiations begin today on several fronts.

High-ranking United Steelworkers officials and top management of 11 major steel producers begin trying to solve problems not settled at local levels in talks over the past month.

Like the earlier negotiations, they're a prelude to the industrywide bargaining that starts June 3 in New York.

"You can say we've made some progress at the plant level," a spokesman for the international union said. "Problems that weren't settled at the plants will be brought up to the company level talks. Of course, these have to be important."

He said typical issues to be discussed at the company level are job safety, working schedules, allocation of overtime and job conditions.

Two issues certain to spice the talks are incentive pay for workers and union gripes about companies contracting for outside work that the union believes should be performed by its own members.

Negotiations will be held separately with these major firms at these sites:

U.S. Steel, Jones & Laughlin Steel, Pittsburgh Steel and Allegheny Ludlum, all in Pittsburgh; Bethlehem Steel, New York; Colorado Fuel & Iron, Denver; Inland Steel, Chicago; National Steel, Detroit; Republic Steel, Cleveland; Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Youngstown, Ohio; and Armco Steel, St. Louis.

When these talks are finished, the industrywide bargainers will have almost two months to hammer out a settlement for the nation's 450,000 basic steelworkers, whose present contract expires Aug. 1.

The union figures steelworkers earn an average of $3.83 an hour. Industry sources say it's $4.88, counting fringe benefits.

Cincinnati's Council Elects Krabach New City Manager

CINCINNATI (AP)—The six-man Republican majority on City Council officially voted Richard Krabach Cincinnati city manager Wednesday over vigorous protests by Council minority members.

In Columbus, Krabach submitted his resignation as Ohio finance director, effective June 30, to Gov. James A. Rhodes who accepted it and wished him good luck.

Krabach, 53, finance director since 1963, will make $40,000 plus a $5,000 expense account as manager. He succeeds William Wichman, who resigned in mid-April to become a consultant to a city business.

Krabach scheduled a news conference here today at 10 a.m. "He is looked upon as the leading public money manager in the United States," Rhodes said. "He had designed and implemented a system of budget control that is being copied by many other states."

Krabach will be replaced by Howard L. Collier, state budget director.

Council's action Wednesday amounted to a formality as the body, acting as a committee of the whole, voted Tuesday to recommend Krabach for appointment and merely voted on its own proposal.

The three minority members of the nine-man council, Charles Taft and Myron Bush, and Democrat John Gilligan, termed Krabach's selection a political move.

Making a statement on behalf of the dissenters, Taft said the appointment was a "purely political choice by Gov. James Rhodes and his associate Earl Barnes," who was recently named chairman of the Hamilton County Republican Party.

Gilligan objected to the Republican majority converting "The most important governmental position in Cincinnati into the biggest and juiciest patronage plum in the state."

Gilligan claimed the manager-designate knows "how and why he got the appointment" and "undoubtedly knows further what he will have to do to keep the job."

Republican Mayor Eugene Ruehlmann condemned the minority for making a "travesty" of the Council's selection procedures, for discrediting a "highly capable man" and for "farfetched" tactics.

Parents Thankful Son Alive, Well In North Viet Prison

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—"Thank God that he is safe," said Mrs. Nathan Gerber at her farm home near Kidron Wednesday night upon hearing that her son, Daniel, 27, a missionary, is alive and well in a North Vietnam prison.

"We have wondered so long. We have been hoping and praying he would be all right," said Mrs. Gerber.

Her son was kidnaped six years ago by Viet Cong guerrillas. Gerber and other medical missionaries were seized walking along a road in South Vietnam to a leper hospital where they worked. The hospital is operated by the Christian and Missionary Alliance, but Gerber is of Mennonite faith.

At the annual general council of the Christian and Missionary Alliance in Raleigh, N. C., Wednesday, the president of the denomination, the Rev. Dr. Nathan Bailey, reported Gerber and two other American missionaries are alive and well. The Rev. Mr. Bailey said the three had been forced to care for North Vietnamese casualties, and added:

"This is the first time in the six years that our information from behind the Viet Cong lines is so positive and confirmed by reports from several sources."

Gerber's fiancée, Ruth Wilding of Cleveland, was killed last January in a Viet Cong raid on a village where she worked in a hospital.

Gerber first went to Vietnam in 1961 on a three-year missionary assignment in lieu of military service.

His family runs a dairy farm near Kidron, east of here.

Final Tabulation Confirms Victors In Board Contest

Complete but unofficial returns in Hancock County's board of education contest Tuesday confirmed partial returns which indicated John Paul Jones of New Cumberland, incumbent, and Atty. James Jordan of Chester had been elected.

Although Jordan polled less than William Murray of Clay District, state regulations prohibit more than two board members from the same district. J.P. Morgan, another incumbent, resides in Clay District.

The balloting saw Dr. J. M. Brand, Dale Highfield and Ernest John trail in the returns. The vote was:

Brand	4,343
Highfield	1,883
John	3,214
Jones	7,706
Jordan	4,889
Murray	5,833

Andrews Due Re-Election To GOP Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John S. Andrews of Toledo is expected to be renominated as newly elected members of the Republican State Central Committee meet here today to reorganize.

National Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss of Akron, a former state chairman, will attend the meeting in the Sheraton Hotel. Bliss remains a member of the State Central Committee, re-elected from the 14th district last week.

New business will include electing a new state vice chairman. Florence Morris of Toledo, who currently holds the post, did not run for re-election to the central committee in the May 7 primary.

The central committee members, a man and a woman elected in each of the state's 24 congressional districts, are designated by law to run their party for two-year terms.

Also on the agenda will be discussion and planning for the Nov. 5 general election, with special emphasis on the campaign of Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, the party's senatorial nominee.

Andrews became state chairman when Bliss was named national chairman April 1, 1965, and then was elected to a full two-year term in 1966.

The Democratic party's central committee will meet here Monday for its reorganizational meeting. The meeting originally was planned for Friday.

The Democrats will elect a new chairman, as Morton Neipp of Toledo has declined to seek re-election. Eugene P. O'Grady, executive director of the party, is expected to succeed him.

Beter Hurls Charges After Election Defeat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peter D. Beter, the Huntington lawyer who switched parties in mid-stream, was in Washington today to complain about his losing the state's Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Beter claimed he was the victim of a vicious plot. He ran third in the primary with only 1,782 votes compared to Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr.'s winning 94,837.

Beter said recent handbills announced he had thrown his support to Moore and alleged they were passed around in areas where he felt he was strongest.

He said he will confer with the Justice Department about starting an investigation.

Central State U. Head Quits

CLEVELAND (AP) — The president of Central State University resigned Wednesday and an 11-member committee, including two students, will be asked to pick a successor by Aug. 15.

The resignation of Dr. Harry E. Groves was accepted by the university board of trustees meeting here. He cited the ill health of his wife, Evelyn, a patient at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston.

Groves, 46, resigned once last year during racial disturbances at the predominantly Negro school in Wilberforce, but changed his mind a month later.

The selection committee for a successor will be appointed by John H. Bustamante, chairman of the university trustees. It will include five trustees, three faculty members, one alumnus and two students.

Final decision on a new president will be up to the trustees.

Groves, former dean of the law faculty at the University of Washington in Seattle, became president of Central State in 1965.

Groves declined comment on his future plans.

24 Participate At Wellsville In First-Aid Class

Twenty-four attended the first session Tuesday of a 12-hour first-aid course sponsored by the Wellsville Volunteer Fire Department.

Participating, in addition to the volunteers, were representatives of funeral homes and the firemen's Auxiliary. Members of the police department also have been invited to the sessions.

The course is being offered to comply with a new state law which will become effective July 1 requiring firemen to have a basic knowledge of first aid. Dave Lanam, secretary, pointed out.

Instructor for the six week course is Roger Hobson, a certified first-aid instructor from the East Liverpool chapter of the Red Cross.

Enrollment deadline is Tuesday, Fire Chief Robert Lewis pointed out, since participants are permitted to miss one class.

Some 6,000 athletes from about 70 nations are expected to compete in the 1968 Summer Olympic Games in Mexico City.

ANN LANDERS

Computer Mate Unhappy

Dear Ann Landers: I noted a somewhat cryptic message in your column today which I suspect was intended for someone who had inquired about computer-type mate matching. May I offer a few words of advice to those who might be considering such a thing — either for a lark or in a serious vein?

I fell for the idea in a weak and foolish moment and I've been kicking myself ever since. All the computer matcher did for me was take my money (no small fee) and every month after that (for one year) I received a card (from a computer) saying, "Sorry—nothing yet—maybe next month we will find the one we are looking for."

Unfortunately, there are a great many lonely people in the world who are willing to try anything on the slim chance that they'll find someone who will release them from their prison of solitude.

This machine mate-finding gimmick is a con game and I hope it will soon be stopped by law. — ONCE A SUCKER.

Dear Sucker: Barnum was right. There's one born every minute, and, I'd like to add — two to take him. Thanks for the non-testimonial.

Wrong Diagnosis

Dear Ann: I know you believe in psychiatry — and I believe in it, too. But it's not the answer to everything.

By Ann Landers

On occasion you've been big enough to admit you've been wrong. I hope, for the sake of your millions of readers, you will not hesitate to do so again.

Recently you published a letter from a teen-ager whose mother imagined she smelled odd odors. At first she thought the odor was coming from the plastic — including the telephone. A week later she decided the odor was coming from the walls, so they moved. Within a week she insisted the same odor had followed her to the new home. You suggested that the woman get psychiatric help.

If you had checked out that letter with some of your Harvard Medical School consultants they would have told you imaginary odors can be a symptom of a brain tumor. You should have advised the woman to see a physician for a medical examination. Please tell her to do so NOW. — OTTAWA READER.

Dear Reader: You are correct and I thank you for calling this to my attention. Many physicians have written to tell me, as you did, that I was wrong. My apologies for the cropper and my thanks to all who wrote.

Screaming Mama

Dear ANN: I'm a 14-year-old girl with a mother who's driving me buggy. I wake up in the morning hearing her voice. She yells from morning till night.

Today it went like this: "You're going to give me a nervous breakdown yet. Clean up your room or I'm going to throw all the junk into the garbage can. Stand up straight, your posture is terrible. Pull down your dress. Get off the phone. Wash your neck. Hang up your coat. Turn down the music. Cut your hair. — bla bla bla —"

What advice do you have for me, Ann? I think I'm the one who is going to have the nervous breakdown. — PICKED ON TEEN.

Dear Teen: My advice to you is pick up your junk, stand up straight, pull down your dress, get off the phone, wash your neck, hang up your coat, turn down the music and cut your hair.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP) — Sgt. Shelly Harden was cleared of all charges of mistreating Marine recruits Wednesday.

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE Review Sports Editor

There was an interesting column by Andy Dugo in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette the other day about the 1907 Sewickley High School track team.

There never had been track at the school, but a group of boys got together and entered the Ohio high school track meet held in East Liverpool.

After traveling here by train, paying their own expenses, the fledgling thinslads won the meet, and received a handsome trophy. But then someone realized that a Pennsylvania team was ineligible to compete in an Ohio championship meet and the trophy was taken away and given to Massillon, the runner-up.

CHUCK ABRAMSKI, successful football coach at New Brighton High School, has taken the head coaching job at Brownsville High. Abramski compiled a 23-4-2 record at New Brighton in three years, including an 8-0-2 mark last year, the first unbeaten season in the school's history, but was at odds with some members of the school board.

ELLWOOD CITY, always a power in WPIAL baseball circles, won a close game over Union Twp. the other day, 24-0. Ellwood City and East Liverpool are linked in that both areas send many baseball players to Marietta College, always a small-college power. Marietta coach Don Schaly is an Ellwood City graduate, while Beaver Local baseball coach Lloyd Stockdale graduated from Marietta. Gary Caruso of East Liverpool, a freshman at Marietta now, is pitching on the JV team there.

A POLL of National League managers published in Sport Magazine shows that Gene Alley, Bill Mazeroski and Roberto Clemente of the Pirates are the best at their positions. The poll obviously wasn't taken lately, as none of the three Pirate stars are currently hitting over .208.

TOMMY HARPER of the Indians has the best lifetime stolen base percentage in the majors. Harper had swiped 124 bases in 152 attempts for a .816 mark prior to this season. All these came while Harper was playing for the Cincinnati Reds, but he hasn't slowed his pace this season.

W. Beaver Golf Team In WPIAL

The Western Beaver High School golf team, champions of Section 8 with a 9-1 mark, gets a chance to advance in WPIAL play tomorrow.

The Golden Beavers play a triangular match at Venango Trials Golf Course in Butler County with Beaver Falls, champions of Section 9, and Neshannock, champions of Section 1. Neshannock is the defending WPIAL champion. The winner of this triangular match goes on to the WPIAL semifinals, also a triangular affair.

Members of the Western Beaver team, coached by Dick Temple, are Fran Marron, Steve Carey, Chuck Kelker, John Peichel, Wayne Robbins, Bob Benek and Mike George.

Astros, Cards Win Stove Loop Openers

The 1968 Midland Hot Stove League season was launched Monday night with two games.

Two games were played each Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The Astros came from behind to defeat the Braves 14-8 Monday. Del Cochran was the winning pitcher while Mike DiMaggio had the loss.

Dave DiCiccio's hitting and Greg Oliver's pitching sparked the Cardinals to a 16-4 victory over the Dodgers. DiCiccio blasted a homer, a double and two singles for a perfect night.

Rick Prodonovich chipped in with three hits while Oliver had two doubles. He also fanned 10. Booker had a perfect 4 for 4 to lead the Dodgers.

Bucs Get Only 4 Singles

Carlton's Pitching Stale, So Are Punchless Pirates

By IRA MILLER Associated Press Sports Writer PITTSBURGH (AP) — Steve Carlton said he was fatigued, and stale, and didn't have his best stuff.

Every pitch was a struggle. "I really had to kick myself," the St. Louis lefthander said, almost like he was making excuses.

"A couple of pitches I had nothing on," he went on. But it didn't matter.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, you see, weren't getting anything on Carlton's pitches either. His four—hitter Wednesday night and Julian Javier's first homer of the season enabled the Cards to post their second straight 1-0 victory over Pittsburgh.

Carlton, 4-1, explained it in a word: "Stale."

He meant his pitching, but it would have been more appropriate in reference to the Pirates' attack, which hasn't produced a run in 25 innings and only got one man to second base Wednesday night.

"I have to run to keep in shape," Carlton said. "When I don't run, I don't feel well the next day." He was referring to Tuesday night's rainout that kept him inside.

"Physically, I felt fatigued and had to put everything behind every pitch. And that's tough, especially in the late innings when you're tired."

Tired or not, there was little rumbling from the feared Pittsburgh attack. All four hits were singles and the only time the Pirates got two baserunners, they did it with two outs.

It was the second straight four-hit shutout for Carlton, who blanked the Mets 2-0 in his last start. He struck out six and walked only one, that on a 3-2 pitch.

Still, neither Carlton nor catcher Tim McCarver thought he had the sharpness of the game against the Mets. But they were in agreement on every pitch until the last one.

"I wanted to throw a curve ball and make sure it was low, so if it was a hit it wouldn't go for extra bases," Carlton said to explain why he shook off McCarver's fast ball sign. Roberto Clemente obliged by bouncing to third for the final out.

"The curve ball was working real good so there's no use staying away from it," Carlton said. "I only throw two pitches."

Javier turned in the night's key defensive play when he made a running grab of Manny Mota's pop in short right and doubled Donn Clendenon off first in the fifth.

"I didn't think I could get to it," Javier said. "But it died and I got under it."

The Cards, 5-0 against Pittsburgh this year, send Ray Washburn against Bob Veale tonight.

Preakness Entry Doubtful

Cavalaris Suspended By Churchill Stewards

By ED SCHUYLER JR. Associated Press Sports Writer BALTIMORE (AP) — Thoroughbred racing's tarnished Triple Crown could get some polishing today, depending on the mood of Peter Fuller, the owner of Dancer's Image.

Lou Cavalaris, the colt's trainer, and his assistant, Robert Barnard, were suspended by Churchill Downs stewards late Wednesday night as a result of an illegal pain-relieving drug that led to Dancer's Image's disqualification from the May 4 Kentucky Derby.

Fuller, who had left Louisville with Cavalaris en route back to Baltimore about an hour before the suspension was announced, told The Associated Press during a stopover in Chicago early today he had not decided whether to enter his colt in Saturday's Preakness.

Entries for the race were due today.

Before the hearing began earlier this week, Fuller had said Dancer's Image would not run in the second jewel of the Triple Crown at Pimlico if Cavalaris was suspended. But Cavalaris has urged all the while that the colt run, no matter what his status as a trainer.

The three stewards indicated further investigation was merited and referred the matter to the Kentucky Racing Commission.

Fuller said he would appeal the decision to the commission in hope that Cavalaris would be able to train Dancer's Image during the course of his suspension.

After meeting nearly 48 hours behind locked doors, the stewards announced that Cavalaris and Barnard were forbidden to enter any race track through June 13.

They also officially announced that Dancer's Image, who finished first in the Derby by 1 1/2 lengths over Calumet Farm's Forward Pass, was disqualified and placed last.

This made Forward Pass the Derby winner, gave the first money of $122,600 to Calumet Farm, and gave the colt a shot at becoming the first Triple Crown winner since Citation added a Belmont Stakes triumph to Derby and Preakness victories.

Cubs Top Dodgers In 9th; Reds Win

By DICK COUCH Associated Press Sports Writer Julian Javier will never be mistaken for Babe Ruth... but the slender St. Louis Cardinal is the Sultan of Swat today in the starry eyes of a McKeesport, Pa., youngster.

legs were crushed in a recent automobile accident.

The boy, who might never walk normally again according to his doctors, asked Javier to hit a home run for him in the Cards' game at Pittsburgh.

Javier obliged in the fourth inning, slamming his first homer of the season to back Steve Carlton's four-hit pitching and give the Cardinals their second successive 1-0 victory over the Pirates.

"I wasn't thinking about it," Javier said afterward. "But when I was running around the bases, I thought, 'Look what I did!'"

The Chicago Cubs caught Los Angeles from behind 5-3, Cincinnati trimmed the New York Mets 3-0 and San Francisco topped Houston 7-3 in other National League action. The Atlanta-Philadelphia game was rained out.

Javier, the Cardinals' slick-fielding second baseman, hit Steve Blass' first pitch in the fourth inning into the light tower next to the left field scoreboard at Forbes Field.

Carlton held Pittsburgh hitless until the fifth and nursed the one-run edge all the way for his fourth victory against one loss. The tall southpaw struck out six and allowed only one runner to reach second base.

Dick Nen, a former Dodger, beat his old teammates with a two-run pinch hit single in the ninth, capping a three-run Chicago rally. Nen delivered the winning hit after Randy Hundley's run-scoring single tied the game.

Losing pitcher Jim Grant checked the Cubs on five hits until the ninth and slugged his first National League homer, a two-run shot in the third. Ernie Banks tied it with a two-run double in the fourth, but committed a seventh inning throwing error before Wes Parker's sacrifice fly sent the Dodgers in front 3-2.

George Culver blanked the Mets on seven hits and the Reds, who had dropped six of their previous seven starts, pounded loser Jerry Koosman and two relievers for 13.

The first of Tommy Helms' three singles drove in the only run Culver needed in the Reds' two-run second inning. Vada Pinson scored the second run on a single by Leo Cardenas and doubled another run home in the eighth.

Willie Mays' 571st career homer—a two-run blast in the first inning—triggered San Francisco's victory over the Astros. With Ollie Brown's two-run single keying a four-run burst in the sixth, the Giants took the lead to 7-0 before Doug Rader hit a three-run homer for Houston in the seventh.

Gaylord Perry picked up his fourth victory against two setbacks, but needed ninth inning help from Frank Linzy as the Giants beat the Astros for the 31st time in their last 34 meetings at Candlestick Park.

Bucs Burn Bats

PITTSBURGH (AP)—After Wednesday night's 1-0 loss to the St. Louis Cardinals, Pittsburgh Pirates hauled more than 50 bats to the right field bullpen area where they poured gasoline on them and watched them go up in smoke.

The bat bonfire was the players' idea. They apparently hoped the smoke would drift far away, carrying with it the memory of runless and hitless games.

Javier borrowed a page from the Ruth legend Wednesday night after a hospital visit to 6-year-old Mark Sandusky, whose

Angels Top Chisox In Milwaukee

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox brought major league baseball back to Milwaukee and got a wet reception from the weatherman, an impartial one from the fans and a beating from the California Angels. Only the size of the crowd—23,510—made the trip worthwhile.

After all, it was the size of the crowds in Chicago—the largest has been 11,546 this season—that prompted the Sox to schedule nine regular season games in Milwaukee, the first there since the Braves moved in 1965.

The White Sox themselves, however, failed to impress. Most of the fans sat through the rain that began in the early innings and the 29-minute delay in the eighth to see Paul Schaal single home two runs in that inning and give the Angels a 4-2 victory over Chicago.

The weather played a part in reducing the rest of the American League schedule as only two other games were completed—Baltimore outslugged Detroit 10-8 and Boston held off Washington 6-4.

The Oakland game at Minnesota was rained out as was the New York game at Cleveland where the Yankees and Indians were tied 2-2 after 7½ innings.

The crowd at Milwaukee, quiet compared to the howling followers of the Braves, watched curiously as the Sox and Angels battled through seven innings tied 1-1.

Only Rick Reichardt, a college star at the University of Wisconsin, got a big hand from the fans, 45 of them his relatives and friends.

The players couldn't tell either from the crowd reaction who was the home team, and the Angels aroused some enthusiasm when they loaded the bases with none out against Bob Locker on Bob Rodgers' single, a double by Bobby Knoop and an intentional walk. Then came the delay, then came reliever Wilbur Wood then came Schaal and there went Chicago's hopes for a victory.

Chuck Hinton of California and Tom McCraw of the Sox traded homers in the ninth inning for the final score.

The backers of the game were delighted at the turnout, considering the tornado warnings in the area until 6 p.m., the rain and local television of the game.

The crowd in Detroit had plenty to keep it excited until the last out despite three-run homers by Boog Powell and pinch hitter Curt Motton of the Orioles and solo shots by teammates Elrod Hendricks and Dave Johnson.

A two-run homer by Mickey Stanley, a solo blast by Norm Cash, two triples by Dick McAuliffe and one by Al Kaline kept the Tigers in the game until Motton unloaded in the eighth for a 10-6 lead.

Detroit loaded the bases in the ninth with none out, but got only two runs in a vain attempt to save Denny McLain his first loss after five complete game victories. Baltimore instead ended its seven-game losing streak.

Jose Santiago gave up a two-run homer to Frank Howard, his 12th, and a solo clout by Ken McMullen in the first inning, but settled down and stopped Washington until the ninth while his Boston teammates overtook the Senators.

When Frank Coggins' double and a single by Bernie Allen scored a Washington run in the ninth, Sparky Lyle came on to get the last out and raise Santiago's record to 5-1.

The Yankees tied their game when Joe Pepitone doubled and Dick Howser hit a pinch single in the seventh inning before rain washed out their game with Cleveland. The records count, but the entire game will be replayed.

Baseball Attendance Down So Far In 1968

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Big league baseball, already committed to expanding to 24 teams in 1969, is taking another step backward at the gate this season, an Associated Press survey disclosed today.

Attendance so far in 1968 is 3.7 per cent under 1967 and almost 10 per cent behind the pace of the majors' peak year in 1966 when they totaled 25 million paid admissions for the first time in history.

This year's aggregate is 3,646,351 compared to 3,786,343 in the same number of games last season and 4,044,609 in 1966. This represents a drop of 139,992 from '67 and 398,258 from 1966.

The National League, whose attendance declined more than two million last season, is off by 122,404. The American League deficit is only 17,588. The AL had an all-time high of 11,336,923 last year when it had one of its closest pennant races ever.

Eleven clubs reported 1968 decreases, a number of them citing reasons that included inclement weather, racial unrest, losing streaks and fewer double-headers than last year.

The Atlanta Braves show the largest decrease, 111,307. The Braves, who shifted from Milwaukee to Atlanta in 1966, have pulled 156,699 customers through the turnstiles in '68. In the same number of home games in 1967, they attracted 268,006 and in 1966 it was 269,877.

Others behind last year's pace are Cincinnati, off 79,928; Baltimore 61,184; the New York Yankees, 54,825; California 51,799; Detroit 51,519; St. Louis 21,458; Los Angeles 15,429; San Francisco 15,122; the Chicago White Sox 5,743 and Philadelphia, 5,364.

Clay Challenges Frazier, Ellis Before Jail Term

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Cassius Clay, known as Muhammad Ali to his Muslim followers, proposed today a three-man, multi-million-dollar titfight for charity to decide the real heavyweight boxing champion before he goes to jail.

"I expect to go to jail," the 25-year-old deposed but undefeated titleholder said. "Maybe in two months, maybe more — it's in the hands of the Supreme Court. But before I go, I'd like to see this heavyweight problem settled once and for all."

"I would be willing to fight Joe Frazier and Jimmy Ellis with 15 minutes rest between bouts, but I know the commissions wouldn't allow that."

"So we could stage one fight on Saturday night and the other one on Monday night — or maybe a week apart."

"We should hold it in the biggest outdoor stadium in the world. It would bring in millions of dollars. Half of the proceeds could go to a poverty fund. The other half could be distributed equally among the fighters."

Clay returned home Wednesday from an Eastern speaking tour. He has addressed several campus college groups and says he has bookings for more than 30 others.

"I am more famous as a speaker than I ever was as a boxer," Muhammad said.

A convert to the Muslim faith and a professed minister, the sleek Louisville Negro was given a maximum five-year sentence and fined $5,000 for refusing to enter the armed forces. His case is now being appealed to the Supreme Court.

After refusing to take the step for induction, Muhammad was stripped of his title by both the New York Athletic Commission and the World Boxing Association.

Ellis, former sparmate of the champion, recently won the WBA title tournament. Frazier, by beating Buster Mathis, gained the recognition of the New York Athletic Commission and a handful of other states.

"But nobody recognizes anybody but me as champion," Ali said. "A lot of people are protesting. They will call whoever wins 'the white man's champion' unless he beats me."

Midland scored in the third inning when Ron Gerra walked, stole second and scored when catcher Dan McNear made a wild throw on Roscoe Ranelli's bunt. George Mraovic took the loss.

Frazier, Ramos To Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — A heavyweight title fight was all set today between five-state champion Joe Frazier of Philadelphia and Manuel Ramos, the Mexican titleholder, for Madison Square Garden Monday night, June 24.

Official announcement of the bout was expected to be made this morning at a Boxing Writers' breakfast—but Ramos leaked the news when he arrived in New York Wednesday night.

Frazier, winner of all 20 of his pro fights, gained recognition as world champion in New York, Illinois, Massachusetts, Maine and Pennsylvania when he stopped Buster Mathis in the 11th round at the Garden March 4.

Sports Quiz

Here is a sports quiz to test the knowledge of area sports fans.

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

Jim Riggs of Park Blvd., who has come close in the past, won the quiz for the first time this week, submitting a perfect paper. He edged out many-times champ Earl Diddle, who missed parts of two questions.

Diddle knew that Cesar Tovar got the first-place MVP vote that prevented Carl Yastrzemski from sweeping the award in the American League last season, but he didn't know that Max Nichols of the Minneapolis Star cast the vote. Diddle had Rich Reese of the Twins as getting the most pinch hits in the majors last season, 13, but he failed to note that Dalton Jones of the Red Sox also had 13.

Felipe Montemayor, who played on the wretched Pirate teams of the early 1950s, hit .376 in the Mexican Southeast League last season. Connie Mack Stadium in Philadelphia still has billboards on the fences. Cliff Chambers, in 1951, pitched and won a no-hitter for the Pirates. Harvey Had-dix, of course, did not win his 12-inning perfect game. Sam Jones of the Cubs, in 1955, was the last pitcher to no-hit the Pirates. Del Crandall, in 1965, was the last Pirate to hit into a triple play at Forbes Field. Murray Dickson won 20 games in 1950, lost 21 in 1951. The longest 1-0 game prior to 1968 was Sept. 1, 1967, when the Cleveland Indians won at Cincinnati in 21 frames. The Cleveland Indians won 16 extra-inning games in 1967, losing nine. The Phillies had the best record, with a 12-5 mark in extra-inning contests.

- This week's questions:
1. What will be the nicknames of the American League franchises in Seattle and Kansas City next season?
  2. Kansas City will have a franchise next season because of political pressure. Similarly, a franchise was brought into Washington when the old Senators moved to Minnesota. Name another instance in sports where a franchise was moved into a city right after another franchise in the same league had left.
  3. Who were the first three Negroes to play basketball for the University of Minnesota?
  4. What was the White Sox' record in 1-0 games last season?
  5. What was the Phillies' record in 1-0 games last season?
  6. Who was the only player to have four extra-base hits in a game last season?
  7. Who holds the record for most extra-base hits in a game?
  8. What Pirate in the 1950s hit three triples in a game?
  9. Who had the longest consecutive-game hitting streak in 1967?
  10. Who is the Pirates' director of scouting?

Rozelle Doubts Player Strike

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Pro football commissioner Pete Rozelle says he still believes team owners and players consider the game a sport and are willing to make sacrifices for it.

"I believe every owner in the game would rather lose a million dollars and win the Super Bowl than to make a million and finish third or fourth in his division," Rozelle said on the eve of today's finish of the club owners' meeting.

The joint meeting of owners of teams in the American and National Football Leagues stretched into today because of lengthy discussions by NFL executives over player demands for more money.

The owners have been talking about a reported letter which they have said shows the NFL Players Association is seeking authority to call a strike if their demands are not met. No owner, however, has said he has seen the letter.

"At this time, I certainly do not think there will be a strike," Rozelle said. "Neither side wants a strike. I'm extremely hopeful that this will be resolved without such action."

The players are seeking a $5 million hike in their pension fund, $500 each for playing in a preseason game and a minimum annual salary of $15,000.

Although the NFL owners did not come to a public agreement on how they would counter player demands, a joint session of the NFL-AFL produced two developments.

The owners voted unanimously to test an extra-point scoring change in interleague exhibition games. The change abolishes conversion kicks and requires teams battling in games matching AFL players against NFL players to run or pass for a one-point conversion.

Exhibition games between teams of the same league will use the old conversion rule. Teams in NFL will kick, run or pass for one point and AFL foes will continue to kick for two.

The old rules also will apply during all regular season games in both leagues next fall.

The other development came when the owners adopted unanimously a resolution that would require the Boston Patriots to be in the process of building at least a 50,000-seat stadium by 1970 or relinquish its franchise in the AFL.

Midland Bowlers Honored

More than 60 attended the banquet for the Midland Youth Bowling Association at the Riviera Restaurant Wednesday.

Trophies were awarded to John Masley, highest average; Mark Waddingham, most improved bowler; Bob Waddingham, singles tournament and for the highest three game average, and to all the members of the winning team, which are Roy St. George, captain; Jeff Adams, Rick Poff, Max Young and Bob Moore.

Patches were awarded to the above boys and to Joe Cellini for the highest single game. Albert (Chubby) Troiani, proprietor of Riviera Lanes, who was host to the group, and his instructor, was presented a trophy for the boys for his help. He also gave the dinner.

Charles Polce, physical education instructor of Midland High School and coordinator of Lifetime Sports for this district, said he hopes to continue the bowling competition next year. He congratulated the youths on their behavior.

Ten teams of youths from the Midland area bowled with the group.

The runner up team included Jim D'Angelo, captain; Bob Kraker, Don White, Ray Melnick and Bill Chambers. John Irvine is president of the league.

A letter was received stating that the school board would co-operate with the league concerning use of school facilities.

It was reported that 11 men had passed the first aid course conducted under the direction of Fire Chief Al Van Dyne.

The player applications that have been received so far were distributed to the coaches.

President Ray Rigdon was in charge of the meeting. Secretary Ben Weber read the minutes and treasurer Frank Hill read the treasurer's report. The next meeting will be May 21 at 7:30 at the gas company office.

At Indy Race

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — It's the consensus of 15 top drivers at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway that it will take a speed of more than 170 miles an hour to win the pole position in this year's Memorial Day 500-mile race.

That's faster than any lap has ever been run around the 2½-mile paved oval. The current qualifying record is 168.982 for the 10 miles and a best lap of 169.779 by Mario Andretti of Nazareth, Pa., last year.

Andretti, who has broken the qualifying record three straight years, is confident the 170 m.p.h. barrier will be shattered in Saturday's qualifications for the 52nd annual classic.

He predicted in a poll Wednesday a top average of 170.6 m.p.h. with a best lap of 172.3 in Saturday's 10-mile runs.

The pole car, the No. 1 starter, is determined by the best average speed in the first day of the two weekends of qualifications.

There were only 600 radio stations in the United States in 1932.

Negroes

Boycotting

Cal Football

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Negro football candidates at the University of California are boycotting spring practice, demanding the right to say who should play which position and when.

Coach Ray Willsey silently read their demands, presented by one athlete and one student non-athlete, declined them, and handed back the paper.

"I do not believe these negotiatives of a coach are negotiable," he said. "I cannot ignore my responsibilities."

He refused to give details of the demands.

He also refused to name any of the athletes.

"I will not initiate any name calling," he said today. "I don't want to appear to the public to be exposing them to criticism."

He said in a statement: "It will be a tragedy that competition will be denied to some outstanding young men because of their actions."

"These men, by not reporting for practice, are, in effect, removing themselves from the California football team."

Willsey said he has no idea when or if the Negroes will return. Football practice ends Saturday.

Pressed for a count, Willsey said 14 were out for spring drills and every one played in last Saturday's alumni game.

He said five or six were lettermen.

Most of the 14 missed Tuesday drills and all boycotted Wednesday's.

The circus will appear on the lot next to the Thorfare store in the East End, and will have performances at 4 and 8 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from any league member and student tickets bought in advance will be half price.

A Junior Editors Quiz About
VENICE

QUESTION: Why does Venice have streets of water?

ANSWER: “Flee from the barbarians” was the cry when Attila, king of the Huns, swept down from the north toward Italy in 425 A.D. Many fugitives sought shelter on a group of small muddy islands in a lagoon near the head of the Adriatic Sea. Finding safety in a troubled period, they became permanent settlers. So that they could put up buildings, they drove stakes deep into the mud (upper right). Since there was hardly any land for farming they built ships and began to trade with the rich nations to the east. The openings between islands became the famous canals and were bridged over. Other canals were dredged out, making waterways for streets with boats for vehicles. So arose the famous city of Venice. The Venetians developed a special boat to carry passengers and goods around the city. Still in use today, the long, graceful gondolas are propelled by gondoliers, who stand in the stern, using a long oar or sweep. Read some more about the history of this fascinating city.

Teresa Young of Rocky Mt., N. C., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.

the powers of the republic.”

Five years ago — Astronaut Gordon Cooper made a safe landing after orbiting the earth 22 times.
